RE: Information on FORMER / RETIRED / SENIOR - Visiting Judges
Tex. R. Jud. Admin., Rule 12 [REQUEST]

Dear General Counsel,

In my continued research under U.S. Constitution article VI, Clause 3; Texas Constitution article XVI, §1(c), (d), (f)(Vernon 1989, Supp. 1993); and 1 Texas Administrative Code §73.71(Vernon 1983), I've since found that each mandates that [all] elected and/or appointed judicial officers of this State [shall] TAKE, and FILE executed ("Anti-bribery Oath / Affirmation") and ("Oath / Affirmation of Office") with (each) new term of appointment / assignment and/or office held. After such is complied with, 1 T.A.C. §73.71 explicitly requires:

"[A] commission will be issued and forwarded to an appointed or elected state officer following receipt of an executed oath of office."

Id. 1 TX ADC §73.71, effective 8 Tex.Reg. 3183. Nowhere within 1 T.A.C. §73.71, does it state anywhere that it "does not apply to Former / Retired / Senior Visiting Judges in this State."

Texas Government Codes §§74.054; 74.055; 74.0551; 74.056 and 75.001 allow "Former / Retired / Senior Visiting Judges" to elect to continue "appointment / assignments" on benches all around Texas. My question to you under this matter is:

- (A) Does this mean that their "term" of appointment / assignment would begin, and end every two years when they re-elected to serve under Tex. Gov't Code §74.0551?
- (B) Do those judges "terms" not exceed two years under Tex. Constitution art. XVI, §30(a)?
- (C) If their "terms" where every two years, would that mean that the Judge would have to [re]take and [re]file Oath[s] under Tex. Const. art. XVI, (c), (d) and (f)?

(D) If that is so, then why wouldn't the Secretary of State not re-issue a commission to those judges under 1 T.A.C. §73.71 so that they would know that they had the authority to act as a Judge?

(E) If the Secretary of State does not issue commissions to such visiting (special) judges, then who would?

These questions are my main areas of concern; because Tex. Const. art. XVI, §1 must be executed with each new term. Tex. Gov't Code §74.0551 must be executed every two (2) years, (making a "term" limit) and mandating when a new statement of appointed officer must be re-filed. A commission issues only when the Constitutional mandates have been followed, as per 1 T.A.C. §73.71. Yet, I can not find anywhere, where the oath of office is not supposed to be filed with the Secretary of State, by one whom participates in the assigned judge program of this State. Neither have I found where the Secretary of State is not supposed to issue commissions to Former / Retired / Senior Visiting Officers, pursuant to 1 T.A.C. §73.71.

Please provide me with answers to my above-listed questions, along with any Texas Attorney General Opinions; legislature mandates and/or administrative memorandum requiring that the Secretary of State treat appointed / assigned judicial officers differently, from those elected. Thank you for your time and consideration in this request, and I await your timely reply, under Tex. R. Jud. Admin., Rule 12.6(b). If you are not the custodian of my requested records above, please ascertain whom that custodian would be, and forward this request on to them, after giving me notice, under Rule 12.6(f).

Sincerely,

Pamela K. Hand

RE: Request for copies of Documents Pertaining to Judge James K. Walker

Dear Mrs. Hand:

Enclosed please find copies of documents that are provided in response to the above-captioned request from you, dated May 27, 2004. Also enclosed is an invoice regarding the charges for such copies. A review of the records of the Office of the Secretary of State ("SOS") reveals that James K. Walker filed the following documents with the SOS:

1. An "Oath of Office," dated February 24, 1984, for the office of District Judge, 286th Judicial District.
2. An "Oath of Office," dated December 6, 1984, for the office of Judge, 286th District Court.
3. An "Oath of Office," dated February 5, 1987, for the office of Judge of the 286th Judicial District.

Your May 27, 2004 request also asked that the SOS furnish copies of commissions issued pursuant to any oaths of office filed with the SOS. This office is unable to comply with such request because the SOS does not retain copies of commissions that are issued. However, a copy of the letter from Governor Mark White, dated February 24, 1984, appointing James K. Walker to the above-referenced 286th District Court is enclosed.

Sincerely,
